

Building a team

We are not just looking for a group of people to support and help us, we are looking for a team of leaders to collaborate with us and create together. A team to fulfill the vision that God has given us for Thailand.

We are reaching out to those special people who can grasp the vision of changing Thailand. Our purpose is not to westernize Thailand, but to bring light; to introduce the living God to people for the first time. We came here to fulfill that vision by rescuing a large segment of Thai society that is considered worthless; the abandoned and orphaned children.

Envision with me, if you will, rescuing a generation that was thrown away and considered useless and worthless, unwanted and unneeded; raising them up to fulfill God's purpose for their lives.

God has put in my heart to see the true value in these children; to see the impact that they will have on this nation. Never before has this been achieved in Thailand; to truly see the value of the precious children that the Thai culture has discarded and forgotten.

We have all heard the saying, "One man's trash is another man's treasure." These children are God's treasure. The Bible speaks of storing up treasure in Heaven. I have given this statement much thought. The Bible doesn't describe for us what exactly the "treasure" is. We are told that Heaven has streets of pure gold, that New Jerusalem which descends down from Heaven has gates made of giant pearls. The foundations are twelve levels, each made of pure precious stones, and the whole city is 1,500 miles squared. The walls are all adorned with precious stones and the gold is so pure that it is transparent like glass. I really can't imagine needing a pile of treasure when I get to Heaven; what would I need it for? I definitely won't need it for bills or to go shopping. When I consider this, I think, "What is the most precious thing in the universe to God?" What does God value more than anything? He makes gold, diamonds and pearls by the power of His word. So what does God value the most? What would He give everything for?

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. John 3:16

I think you know where I am going with this....It seems clear to me that God values people more than anything else in the universe. He values people so much that He willingly gave His only begotten son to purchase us. I believe the treasure that we are to store up in Heaven, is people. That is ultimately the purpose for this ministry in Thailand. God brought us here to present the gospel to people who have never heard it, to disciple everyone who is willing, and to bring the light of God to this dark country.

God has given me a very clear vision, He has shown me the way that this country will turn to Jesus is to reach out and rescue children, children who have been abandoned and orphaned, children who have been thrown away. These children are considered worthless, but God values them more than anything else.

Jesus considers this mission so important that He said: "Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me." Matt 18:5 NKJV

We raise the children in homes with the love of a true Christian family, we teach them, disciple them and prepare them for a life of boldness, sharing their faith, healing the sick, casting out demons, raising the dead and spreading the gospel. We raise these children to have an intimate relationship with God. We give these precious children hope and a future that otherwise would have been impossible. The children are the future of Thailand.

I ask you to pray, ask God if this vision is for you. If perhaps it already is in your heart to change the world for the kingdom of God, then perhaps this is your opportunity. We are reaching out to connect with others of like precious faith that share this vision. Contact us and let's begin making plans to fulfill this vision together. I will close with a quote that I love by Theodore Williams:

"We face a humanity that is too precious to neglect. We know a remedy for the ills of the world too wonderful to withhold. We have a Christ too glorious to hide. We have an adventure that is too thrilling to miss."

In His name,
