"Taking the gospel where it has never gone before"

Here's what's new at DeVine Ministries...

Family is one of the greatest blessings in life and especially here as we pioneer unplowed ground on the mission field of Thailand. I can't imagine how difficult and lonely it would be to do what we do all alone; I certainly would not recommend it. I am extremely blessed to have a godly family that is in full agreement about our calling and the purpose for which we are here. We each have our own talents and gifts, but we are truly united in the calling to reach the lost with the gospel. We are united in seeking God's direction and guidance for His ministry to which He has so graciously called us.

We celebrated Arisa's and Ariya's 15th birthday this month; I am so proud of my girls. They are wise beyond their years and each has a wonderful personal relationship with the Lord. I am reminded of this scripture: "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." 3 John 4 NKJV. In our case, I not only hear of it, but I witness it daily. My wife and my girls are focused on ministering to everyone possible. Our desire is to find the "people of peace" (Luke 10:6) disciple them; and as Jesus instructed, teach them "to observe all things which I have commanded you", (Matt 28:19-20) and equip them for the work of the ministry, (Eph 4:11-12).

Arisa and Ariya recently started their own newsletter. They write from the perspective of a 15 year old what life and ministry is like on the mission field. They intend to encourage other young people in their walk with the Lord. They write about their experiences, their feelings and their relationship with the Lord. If you have children or know some young people that could be encouraged by the girl's newsletter, they can subscribe here: <http://jdevineministries.com/latestnews.html>

We are especially thankful for all our faithful partners who have stood with us; supporting us in prayer and financially. With your help we have rescued David and Tunwah. We are planning and preparing for the Home of Hope where we will be able to rescue many more abandoned children. Through discipling these children we are changing this nation. Through the Home of Hope we can not only rescue hopeless children, we can disciple them in their personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We have seen these two boys boldly reach out to others with the gospel and pray for the sick on many occasions. Our faithful partners have made this possible.

If you have not already partnered with us to help us rescue abandoned children, take the gospel where it has never gone before and disciple true faithful believers, then please consider doing so. You can also help us by giving toward the construction of the first phase of the Home of Hope.

The greatest treasure in this world is people; I am convinced this is the treasure we are to store up in heaven, (Matt 19:20). Help us take the wonderful gospel to others that have never heard it.

Bless you,
The DeVine Family
