"Taking the gospel where it has never gone before"

This has been an amazing year. We have been through so much; some of which was heart breaking; however, much of it was wonderful.

First of the year, we started taking our ministry to a new level as we began reaching out to more people in our area. We passed out tracts wherever we went. We even moved our church service to a public park in order to reach the lost with the gospel. We met Mr. Pong in one of our outreaches. I was drawn to him as he, his wife, and granddaughter were sitting by the lake. I felt compelled to just tell him the only way to salvation. As I told him the whole gospel message his smile widened. He said, "I was just sitting here wondering if there was any way to find forgiveness and receive salvation and you came along to tell me; you were surely sent by God."

Praying with Mr. Pong, his wife and granddaughter in the park.

Ministering in our local church.

Ministering healing with Adriana from Colombia and our boys.

Darren from Australia and Adriana from Colombia, came to visit. Together, we built our first small farm.

April, our foundation was approved; we are now an official non-profit ministry foundation.

We found land that will be perfect for building the first phase of the Home of Hope and the Christian School, which will make it possible for us to rescue and disciple literally thousands of children.

Thailand's King of the past 70 years passed away this year and the prince was crowned King. As the country mourns, we pray that the Thai people are open to the Gospel and the good news of Jesus Christ, King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

This year we celebrated our 7th anniversary of full time ministry here in Thailand.

In the past 7 years we have discipled hundreds of people, passed out thousands of gospel tracts, presented the gospel to thousands, led many to Christ, baptized many in water and in the Holy Spirit, seen many people healed, and rescued 4 children. As this year ends, we are looking forward with excitement for what next year holds. I have personally grown in my relationship with the Lord and revelation of who I am in Christ. This is my prayer for the New Year; that we all grow in the knowledge of Him. Although we sometimes feel a little frustrated that we are still not able to rescue more children; there are so many perishing every day. We realize we must keep our focus on the Lord. We must hear His voice clearly and draw closer to Him.

To all our faithful partners, we thank you with all our heart. We could not be here changing lives for the kingdom of God without your help.

Bless you,
The DeVine Family
