"Taking the gospel where it has never gone before"

November 2017 www.jdevineministries.com P.O. Box 7138 Rainbow City, AL 35906-7138

For months Ariya and I knew that God was going to take us somewhere. We've always known that He's had a plan for us and that we'd be serving Him for the rest of our lives, but we also both felt that He was going to bring about a change, which we didn't yet know what that would be. Now we can look back and see how God orchestrated and brought certain people into our lives to steer us to where we are today. This month, we said goodbye to our dad as he returned to Thailand, and we stayed here in the US. Immediately, we started preparing for college by registering for ACT tests, contacting universities and gathering information, and working hard to complete our last year of high school. We lack only a couple of months before graduating, and we will start college in August of next year. So much has been happening so quickly, and God has blessed us by allowing things to fall into place.

I want to thank all of our friends and partners who have supported Ariya and me and have also given toward our college fund. Thank you so much.

Just as things have been changing here, our dad and Mew have been preparing in Thailand.

Mew, David, and Jeff

We wanted for so long to be able to come to the US and itinerate, telling people about the vision God has placed in our hearts; to build the Home of Hope and open a Christian K-12 school that would lead so many children to Christ and allow them to learn with godly curriculum. But people need to know about that vision. Just within the 2 months that we've been in the States, more and more doors have been opening, and it is clear that in order for us spread the word, our dad and Mew need to be here. That is why, currently in Thailand, they have been preparing to come here and will live in Alabama. They plan to travel and speak at every given opportunity, and we believe within a short period of time they will be able to raise the funds in order to launch the first phase of the Home of Hope.

Thank you so much to all of our partners. We hope that you continue to give as we take this large step. Everything you give will go directly toward that goal of purchasing land and building the first home and school facility.

God has just been blessing us tremendously. We've met so many nice people and have made two great and amazing friends. It all just goes to show that Jesus has come to bring us an abundant life.

Bless you,
Arisa and Ariya DeVine
